

Story Hour at The African American Civil War Museum

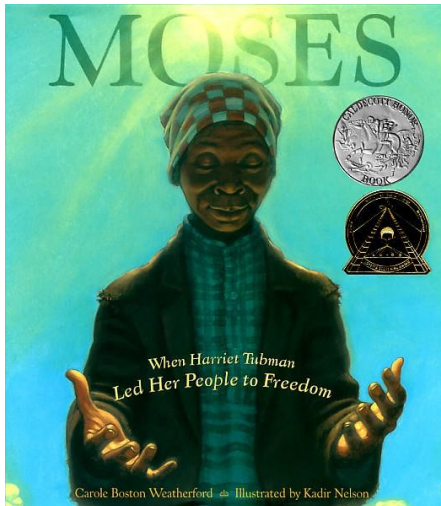

1st Fridays at 11:00 a.m.

FREE

Story Hour at the Museum

1st Friday of the Month
at 11:00 a.m.

Story hour engages our youngest visitors in historic objects and museum settings by using traditional and contemporary stories. Children will hear a story in the auditorium and enjoy hands-on crafts and activities. Stories are recommended for children ages 5-10. Schedule your group by calling the museum 202-667-2667 or by emailing us at education@afroamcivilwar.org

“Moses: When Harriet Tubman Led Her People to Freedom”

By Carole Boston Weatherford

Harriet Tubman was born a slave and Maryland, she not only escaped herself but led countless people to freedom on the Underground Railroad.

“Moses: When Harriet Tubman Led Her People to Freedom,” is a beautifully illustrated book that enlivens the story of Harriet Tubman.

Interested in this featured book but can't make it to the museum for this story hour? Contact us about scheduling a story hour specifically for your group by email at education@afroamcivilwar.org or by calling the museum at 202-667-2667

African American Civil War Museum
1925 Vermont Ave, N.W.
Washington, DC 20001
202.667.2667
www.afroamcivilwar.org

African American
Civil War
Museum